

*The Center for Demographic & Social Analysis,
School of Social Sciences Office of the Dean and UCI Advance Equity Advisor Program*

Present

Caitlyn Collins

Assistant Professor of Sociology and of Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies
Washington University, St. Louis

MAKING MOTHERHOOD WORK: HOW WOMEN MANAGE CAREERS AND CAREGIVING

American mothers experience high work-family conflict, but women's expectations depend on national policies and cultural expectations. Interviews with middle-class working mothers in Sweden, Germany, Italy and the US show the importance of context.

Click link for Caitlyn Collins webpage information

Tuesday, May 28, 2019

12:30 pm - 1:30 p.m.

SSPB-Room 1222

Light Lunch for Early Arrivals